Artisan Application 2017

Friday, November 17, 2017, 6pm – 10pm
Saturday, November 18, 2017, 10am – 5pm

Featuring children's crafts to make and take, a Waldorf puppet troupe performance, live music, delicious food, fun games and more.

The highlight of the Fair is the 50+ quality artists and craftspeople that showcase and sell their handcrafted work in time for the holiday season.

The Fair is promoted across Philadelphia and the Delaware Valley region and draws a variety of 1,000+ visitors throughout the weekend.

Artisan Qualifications

The Waldorf Holiday Fair is open to artists in all media who design and produce handcrafted work. Please note:

- * Artists are asked to keep in mind that The Holiday Fair is heavily attended by families with young children and to submit only works appropriate to a general audience.
- * The Holiday Fair committee strives to present a variety of handwork and provide a competitive market for artists. We request that artists not showcase work at the Fair that is outside of the medium submitted in your application.
- * Artists are required to be present and exhibit for the duration of the two days of the Holiday Fair.
- * Artists are required to handle or plan for all of their load-in and load-out.

Applications must be accompanied by four (4) photographs of samples of the work you'd like to exhibit.

Photos are only accepted via email. Please do not mail hard copies.

Booth Space and Fees

Booths are approximately 8' x 8'. Please be aware that placement in the classrooms may not allow for a standard booth configuration. All displays must be set up for the full duration of the Fair - Friday night and all day Saturday.

Please Note

We do not provide assistance with load-in, load-out, or set-up of booth for the Fair.

Final decision of booth location is up to the Vendor Committee. We aim to ensure the best set-up and location of our diversity of artisans. We strive to place vendors in ways that complement each other and highlight the diversity of the offerings.
